

President & CEO

Greater London International Airport Authority

Location: London, ON, Canada

The Greater London International Airport Authority (GLIAA) operates London International Airport. The not-for-profit Airport Authority has full operational and financial control of the Airport under the Federal Government's National Airport Policy.

London International Airport (LIA) now ranks as the 12th busiest passenger airport in Canada, and the 11th busiest airport as measured by aircraft take-offs and landings. LIA is home to over 50 businesses and generates an economic impact to the region in excess of $623 million. In terms of employment, London International Airport and associated businesses employ over 1200 individuals and ranks in the top 10 employers in the London area. From aircraft manufacturing at Diamond Aircraft, to fixed wing domestic or international flight training, to jet and piston aircraft maintenance, the London International Airport is a hub for general aviation services in Southwestern Ontario.

The GLIAA's long serving President & CEO recently announced his retirement, paving the way for a new leader to take the GLIAA through its next phase of evolution. The new President & CEO will lead the development and implementation of the Airport's vision and strategy and provide leadership to the Executive Team and full staff. The new President & CEO's mandate will be multi-faceted. Reporting to the GLIAA's Board of Directors, the President & CEO will be responsible for the safe, secure and efficient leadership, operation and administration of the GLIAA. Among other duties, s/he will be accountable to the Board to develop and recommend, implement and monitor the strategic plan and to successfully execute corresponding operational, business and capital plans and supporting initiatives.

As the ideal candidate, you have demonstrated business acumen and experience at a senior level with at least 10 years of progressive senior management experience.
